

BASIC CAMP RULES

- Please do not bring valuable jewelry, watches, or expensive clothing
- Do not bring electronic equipment including: radios, tape recorders, I-Pods, CD players, cell phones, etc.
- Do not bring cash to camp. The Camp Store will only be available during registration.
- Do not bring fireworks, pocket knives, snack food or candy
- Alcohol, drugs, cigarettes and pornographic material are STRICTLY PROHIBITED in camp.
- Campers are not allowed to leave camp without the Camp Director's permission and staff supervision.

As soon as all campers arrive counselors will explain the Camp Rules to their campers. Campers are held to these standards throughout the week.

All campers are asked to affirm the Cabin Group Agreement: "I will do my best to make sure everyone in my cabin has a good time at camp."

1. Obey/Respect your counselor and all camp staff.
2. Be kind and respect one another. No fighting, no bullying.
3. Use kind words. No put downs, profanity or name calling.
4. Respect each other's privacy, No boys in girls cabins or restrooms and vice versa.
5. Respect other people's property. No touching other people's things without permission. Respect camp property: No markers, crayons or chewing gum on beds. Put trash in trash cans.
6. Girls and boys act appropriately around one another. No public displays of affection (PDA).
7. Stay with your counselor. Don't go anywhere by yourself.
8. Be modest in the way you dress.
9. Keep food out of cabins and tents
10. Snacks are eaten only during snack time (no using vending machines)
11. Always wear shirt and shoes except when you are at the pool.
12. Only use counselor bathrooms in the middle of the night and during rest time.
13. Enjoy walking. Staff members are not allowed to give your rides in camp vehicles.

Golden Rule – Do unto others, as you would have them do unto you

If you are having a negative impact on the rest of the group, you will be disciplined

Discipline – Kaleidoscope Camp staff are carefully trained to work with children in a positive and trusting environment. It is assumed that campers are amenable to normal camp discipline and will conform to the ideals and regulations of our camping program. Parents will be contacted if campers are having difficulty at camp for any reason.

Corporal punishment, denial of food at meals, isolation without supervision, ridicule by staff or campers, excessive exercise or deprivation of sleep are expressly prohibited as a means for discipline in our camp. Any camper found in possession of alcoholic beverages, drugs, drug paraphernalia, cigarettes, and/or pornographic material may be dismissed from camp. In such cases, parents or guardians will be contacted immediately. Any camper dismissed from camp for disciplinary reasons will forfeit any refund of fees.
