Ervin R. Stutzman was born into an Amish home as a twin in Kalona, Iowa. After his father's death three years later, Ervin's mother moved her family to her home community in Hutchinson, Kansas. Ervin was baptized in the Center Amish Mennonite Church near Partridge, Kansas. He served as Dean and Professor of Church Ministries at Eastern Mennonite Seminary for nearly ten years before becoming Executive Director for Mennonite Church USA. He has served in the Mennonite Church in various roles including pastor, district overseer and conference moderator, and moderator for Mennonite Church USA 2001-2003.

Ervin received his Ph.D. from Temple University and holds Masters degrees from the University of Cincinnati and Eastern Mennonite Seminary. His Bachelor's degree was granted by Cincinnati Christian University.

Ervin is a preacher, a teacher and writer. His publications include Being God's People, Welcome, Tobias of the Amish, Emma A Widow Among the Amish, and Creating Communities of the Kingdom (co-authored with David Shenk).
