Music Weekend Is...

Singing

Sing your praise to the Lord!

WCRC's annual Music Weekend is a retreat for adults who enjoy singing. Participants rehearse and prepare several choral arrangements under the direction of Jay Hartzler. The highlight of the weekend is a public performance at the Warwick River Mennonite Church in Newport News.

Fellowship

Enjoy rich fellowship. Join with people from other areas, churches, and denominations to become one voice of praise and worship.

Renewal

Draw near to God. WCRC's 300 peaceful, wooded acres offer a great setting to get away from the fast pace of life and re-focus your attention on our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Fun!

Have fun during your free time on Saturday by staying at WCRC and relaxing, or going into Williamsburg for an adventure. The Williamsburg area has many historical sites as well as two awesome outlet malls.

Our 2011 Theme

This year's Music Weekend theme will be "MUSIC FOR MY SOUL". As we travel through this world we experience joys and sorrows that deeply touch us and move us to a better understanding of ourselves as God's servants. The music we will sing includes a repertoire from a variety of periods of music that allow us to express our inner joys and sorrows on our faith journey.

Our Choir Director

Jay Hartzler has taught at Eastern Mennonite High School in Harrisonburg for the past 30 years. Before teaching at EMHS he taught for five years at Christopher Dock Mennonite High School in Pennsylvania and three years in Indiana. He holds a BA degree in Music Education from Goshen College and MM in Choral Conducting from Temple University where he studied with Elaine Brown.

Jay has been adjudicator and director of festival and workshop choirs in Indiana, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia. In addition to his choral work at the school he is also director of the school orchestra.

Jay is Past President for the Virginia Choral Directors Association and president of the Virginia Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association. Jay and his wife Sheri Hartzler live in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

The Schedule
