

What is Kaleidoscope Camp?

Kaleidoscope Camp is a ministry of Williamsburg Christian Retreat Center located just outside of Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia. The 300 plus acre retreat center was founded by the Mennonite Churches in the Eastern District of the Virginia Mennonite Conference. They had a vision of providing a place where children could come to know Jesus Christ and grow in their relationship with the Lord. Kaleidoscope Camp is an interdenominational camp serving children from Richmond, Williamsburg, and the Hampton Roads area.

Who comes to camp?

Kaleidoscope camp runs for six weeks of the summer. We have four full week camps as well as two half week mini camps. We run camps for children ages seven to sixteen. Each camp is designed with fun, age-appropriate activities, interactive bible studies, and inspiring worship and speakers. Our campers range from children who have grown up in a church family to campers who do not have a home church.

The goal of Kaleidoscope Camp

The goal of Kaleidoscope Camp is to demonstrate God's love to young people by inviting them to enter into a relationship with Jesus Christ helping them develop a solid foundation in God's Word, and challenging them to be salt and light in a world that is full of darkness.

We accomplish this through meaningful worship and bible studies as well as fun activities.

The role of the camp counselor is critical to the growth and nurturing of campers' faith. The camp day is filled with fun activities that children typically are not able to do at home.
