

QUILTING RETREAT

November 12-14, 2010

Quilting, Fellowship, Worship

Providing Christ-centered programs, services, and retreat facilities in a peaceful setting to encourage fellowship, growth and renewal.

PIECE BY PEACE

Quilting:

Bring your current quilting project or start a new one during the weekend. If you have never quilted before Lorraine Mooney will be on hand to help you get started into the quilting world. There will be Mini Classes held throughout the weekend in which different quilting techniques and designs will be taught.

Fellowship:

The weekend is designed to allow quilters to connect with others who share this same passion and faith. The retreat will have a very relaxed schedule allowing participants to get to know each other and share their quilting projects with one another.

Worship the Lord:

We will be exploring how quilting can be a way of worshiping God. There is an old saying, "When life gives you scraps, make a quilt."

The weekend will be peppered throughout with devotionals to help the participants to connect quilting with their relationship with God. We will be exploring how quilting fits into the fabric of our lives and what parallels we can draw from the quilting process.

Lodging

Quilters will stay in Oakwood Lodge, our motel style building. Tables and chairs will be provided in a large meeting room for quilters to use as they work. Plan to bring your own sewing machines if you use one when quilting.

Activities

There will be lots of fun activities throughout the weekend, including fun door prizes. Participants have the option to join Lorraine as she shows how to make several small projects suitable for holiday décor or gifts.

Schedule

The retreat begins on Friday with check-in starting at 4pm. Those wishing to come early can arrive anytime after 9am. Meals will be provided Friday dinner through Sunday breakfast. The retreat will wind-up on Sunday with check-out at 11am. Those wishing to continue quilting can stay as late as 4pm. For the extreme quilters!! Get a super early start by coming on Wednesday morning. Meals and lodging are provided lunch through the following day's lunch for an additional $75 per day. Get some extra time to finish up holiday projects.

Lorraine Mooney

In January of 2007 WCRC welcomed to its staff Lorraine Mooney who moved to Virginia from New York in 2005.

Lorraine graduated from the New Paltz campus of the State University of New York with a degree in Art Education. She spent ten years teaching before "retiring" to stay home and raise her four children.

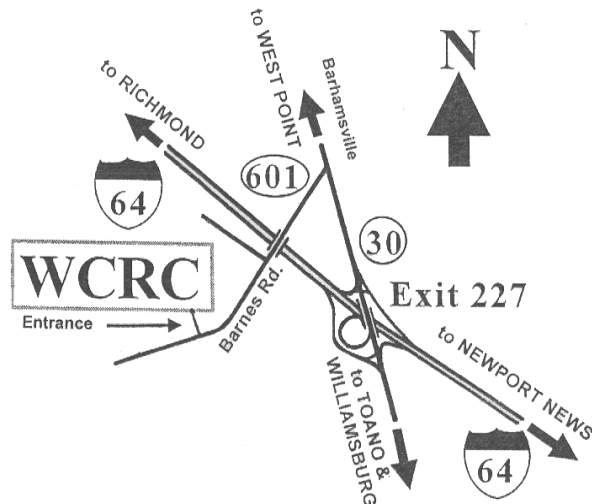

As her children grew she worked part-time teaching in a sewing and knitting store. She eventually took over the store when the owner retired. After moving to Virginia, Lorraine joined two local quilting guilds in the Williamsburg area. She has taught workshops on quilting projects in both guilds and several others including the Virginia Consortium of Quilters. Lorraine also designs and sells her own quilting patterns.

Over many years of quilting Lorraine has found quilting has helped her relate to and stay close to the Lord. She is anxious to share this relationship at the retreat.

Quilt and quilt related patterns by Lorraine will be available for sale at the retreat.
